ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya erstwhile Rabindranath Tagore University is a Public State University located at Hojai, Hojai district, Assam. The university is established through the Rabindranath Tagore University Act, XXXIV of 2017 which was passed by the State Legislature of Assam in 2017. The Act was approved by the then Governor of Assam on 16 October 2017. It was created by upgrading Hojai College, established on 11 July 1964, a general degree college situated in Hojai district, Assam. It was named after Sri Rabindranath Tagore, in 1913, the first Asian, non-European, Nobel Laureate in Literature, an Indian polymath who was active as a poet, writer, playwright, composer, philosopher, social reformer, educationist and painter during the age of Bengal Renaissance. The UGC has recognized Rabindranath Tagore University as an institution “empowered to award degrees as specified by the UGC under section 22 of the UGC Act 1956 by conducting courses through its own departments, its constituent colleges and/or through its affiliated colleges in regular mode with the approval of concerned statutory bodies/councils. The educational institution also provides courses through Krishna Kanta Handiqui State Open University (KKHSOU), and Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) courses in Distance Learning mode.

Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya aspires to become an institution of national and global eminence and it seeks to provide an inspiring atmosphere of learning in which faculty, students and staff can become an active and purposeful force in their role as the primary engine of social, economic, an intellectual and cultural development to create an enlightened society where the freshness of feeling for nature the sensitiveness of soul to human need, the freedom of the mind, the humanity of the heart and the integrity of the individual will prevail as the visible manifestation of the ideas and vision Rabindranath Tagore and Srimanta Sankaradeva. Presently RTV have four Academic Campuses i.e, Srimanta Sankaradev Campus (Old Campus), Hojai, Sir J C Bose Campus, Sagar Basti, Hojai, Haflong Campus, Dima Hasao and Jugijan Campus, Hojai.

ABOUT RABINDRANATH THAKUR VISHWAVIDYALAYA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni movement of the present-day Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya, Hojai has its roots in the legacy of its predecessor institutions. The beginning can be traced back to the days of Hojai College, established in 1964, which served as a premier centre of higher education in central Assam. Over the decades, Hojai College produced thousands of graduates who went on to excel in diverse fields of academics, administration, research, social service, and public life. In recognition of their continuing bond with their alma mater, the Hojai College Alumni Association was formed with the objective of uniting the alumni and extending support to the institution. With the upgradation of Hojai College into Rabindranath Tagore University under the Rabindranath Tagore University Act, 2017 of the Assam Legislative Assembly, the Alumni Association was restructured and renamed as the Rabindranath Tagore University Alumni Association. This transformation symbolized the broadening of scope and outreach, aligning alumni activities with the aspirations of a state university. Subsequently, in 2025, when the university was renamed as Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya, the Alumni Association also adopted its present title as the Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya Alumni Association. This change preserved the institutional continuity while reaffirming the Association's commitment to fostering lifelong connections among its alumni, promoting academic excellence, and contributing to the holistic development of the University and society at large.

Thus, the Alumni Association has evolved through successive phases—from Hojai College Alumni Association, to Rabindranath Tagore University Alumni Association, and finally to its present form, the Rabindranath Thakur Vishwavidyalaya Alumni Association—reflecting the growth, progress, and heritage of the institution and its alumni community.
